Choosing the right secondary school is one of the most important decisions you will make for your child.

We work closely with families to help every child make a confident and successful start.

From the first day, children are supported by clear routines, strong pastoral care and high expectations.

Our staff know the children well and help them settle quickly, feel safe and grow in confidence.

We are proud of our academic results and our strong focus on helping every child succeed.

High-quality teaching, extra support and wider opportunities help children develop ambition, independence and belief in themselves.

We also place strong importance on reading, personal development and preparing children for the future.

Families are kept informed and involved, because we know children do best when school and home work together.

By choosing Heron Hall, you are choosing a school that is calm, ambitious and committed to your child's success.
